

J-CIP:A is a six-week, 90-hour advanced Japanese language and rural Japanese studies course taught entirely in Japanese. Participants will study the unique circumstance; current issues and cultural assets of Akita, Japan's most rapidly aging prefecture, then interact directly with course subject matter through research visits and excursion.

www.aiu.ac.jp/j

IMPORTANT DATE and RESOURCES

SEPT
22

Webinar(Conducted in Japanese)

15:00-15:30 (Japan Standard Time)

Please apply if you wish to join the webinar. The webinar link will be sent to those who complete this online form. If you can't join us live, please also submit the form so that we can send you recorded webinar later.  Online Form

Before joining the webinar, please watch this introduction video.  video

OCT 10

Nomination Deadline

Home institutions must nominate students to AIU who wish to participate in the program by this date.  Application Timeline  Eligibility

OCT
15

Application Deadline

Nominee students must submit all application documents by email by this date.

How to Apply

Any questions or inquiries are to be made to:

The Center for International Affairs,
Akita International University

international+specialprograms@gl.aiu.ac.jp

