

Do you think this is a ridiculous poster?

Why don't you apply as an EVENT INTERN
and help us improve!

Well, we think so too.

Looking for Event Intern!

We are looking for someone who:

- ❖ Is focused, open-minded, curious with a relaxed and can-do attitude.
- ❖ Is looking for a career in event management.
- ❖ Takes on multitasking challenges like a pro.
- ❖ Is not afraid to take initiative and agrees that administrative work is at least as exciting as bungee jumping.
- ❖ Is no stranger to social media. Especially Twitter. If you know Twitter, you're like the BOSS in our book.
- ❖ Excellent written communication skills in English.

What we're offering:

- A chance to work at the Famnit International Office. You will be working with a super cool event manager who is currently managing organizational affairs of the 8th European Congress of Mathematics. That's no small feat. We expect an attendance of 2000 people to the Congress in July 2020, so preparations are in full swing.
- Recommendation letter from the organizers of the Congress which will look great on your CV.
- Great views of the Adriatic Sea while you're taking your afternoon walk.

How to apply:

Send your CV and motivation letter to Tanja Labus (tanja.labus@famnit.upr.si) with subject matter: "Application for Internship-Event".

P.S. We're looking for a dream team, so multiple positions are available!
