

The Flying Pig Beach Hostel

Are you looking for an incredible opportunity to undertake an internship in a friendly, laid back, international environment? The Flying Pig Beach Hostel offers just that.

Whether it is through the Erasmus scholarship or a school internship, either works perfectly!

The tasks that you will do within your internship will be:

General housekeeping and breakfast serving

Interacting and aiding guests by email, over the phone and in person

Processing reservations and checking in and out of guests

Organising, promoting and partaking in events

Assisting on the bar and reception

If you are studying marketing or have a background in this work then we would love for you to help us with our digital and social media marketing.

You must possess a European passport or European residence permit in order to work with us. If you do not hold one of these two, you can still apply but the internship length will be a maximum of 90 days.

What do we offer?

A fantastic time at the beach

What else:

The base hours depend on the requirement of your study and will vary between 30 and 40 hrs a week.

This is not a paid position, but you will get food and accommodation which consists of: Breakfast, lunch, dinner, coffee, tea, juices, soft drinks and accommodation in a dorm room. We have staff prices for beers and wine and you can earn activity pints entertaining the guests.

If you meet the above mentioned requirements and you are interested in the position then please email ben.milam@flyingpig.nl with a cv and some information about yourself. We can set up an online interview if all works out.

Please include which dates you are applying for.
